Sales Benefits to Your Company

INCREASE YOUR SALES

Problem

Clients are reticent to buy from small businesses

Solution

R! makes your business appear as a Fortune 500 company with professional greetings, music on hold, department set-up, business hours rules, and even your transferred calls to cellphones are answered with the company name. Also, voicemails go to email for immediate action.

Problem

Potential sales calls are missed or go to voicemail, thus immediate opportunities to convert are forfeited.

Solution

No calls are ever missed! Call intelligence software can be programmed to route calls to the entire sales team on a first answer basis or be transferred to their cellphones when not in office.

Problem

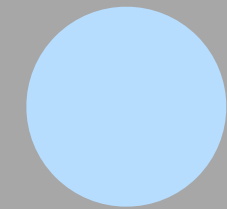

Potential clients are not followed-up on a timely basis

Solution

R!'s CRM allows for posting notes of the call, scheduling call backs, and tracking all activity leading to a sale.

Customer Retention Benefits

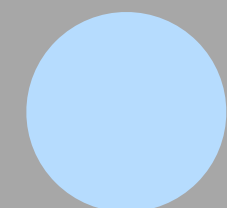

RETAIN YOUR CUSTOMERS

Problem: Churn ratio during the first two months of service is high.

Solution: Our built-in CRM allows for scheduling calls with customers. The historical call tracking activity allows the retention or customer service team to communicate with the customer with up-to-date and accurate information on their account.

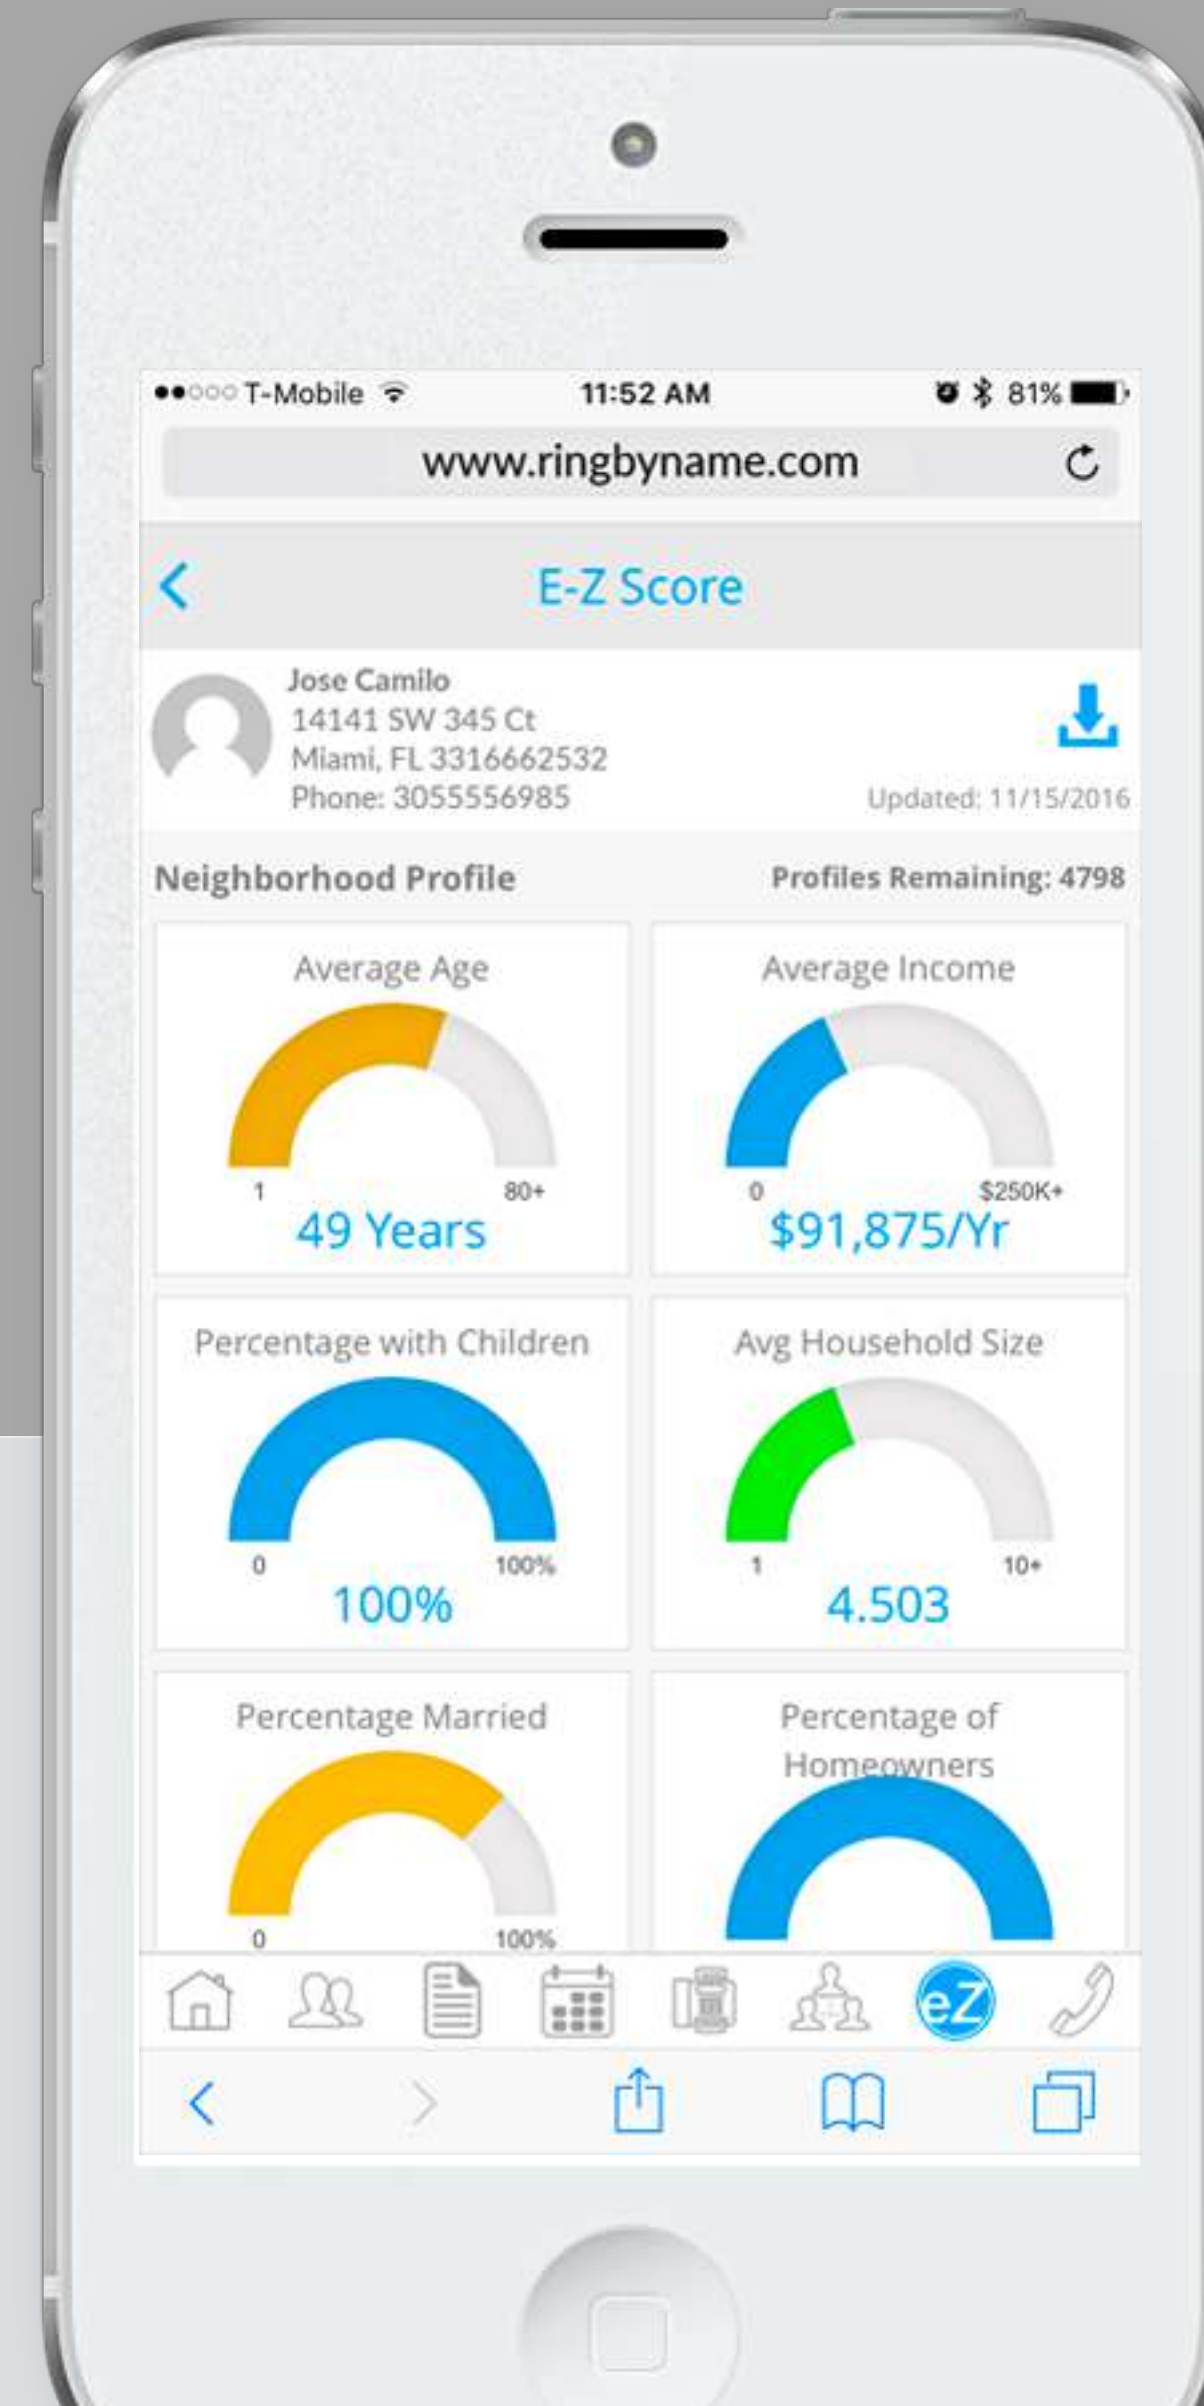

Problem: Customer service is poor given to lack of call tracking and information about the client.

Solution: RI's enhanced caller ID uniquely allows the call to be routed to the customer service rep that previously attended them, thus eliminating miscommunications while improving efficiency. All call records and subsequent entries are at customer services' disposable or immediate resolution of problem.

Fact: It is 6-7 times more expensive to acquire a new customer than it is to keep a current one.

Competitive Advantages

Put yourself in a favorable or superior business position
